

I am opposed to the Proposed Media Consolidation Rule (docket 02-277). It will lead to control of all mass media by a few large corporations and a marked loss of different points of view, which is essential for true democracy. I urge you to insist that there be more than ten owners in each sector of the major markets and to limit cross market ownership by one corporation to less than thirty percent of the combined audience.